SFVIPS and Spirit Of Giving Network Kick Off Back To School!

The South Florida Very Innovative Professionals (SFVIPS) will be hosting the "SFVIPS 5th Annual Bowling Bash" on Saturday, August 6, 2011 at Strikes-Boca. The event will kick off the Spirit of Giving Network Back to School Bash and all event proceeds will provide backpacks and school supplies for disadvantaged children in Palm Beach County.

The Bowling Bash kicks off at 8:30pm with check-in, and tournament play beginning promptly at 9:00pm. General admission tickets are $25 in advance, per person and include two hours of Cosmic Bowling, shoe rental, trophy for winning team, 1 cocktail, and pizza/soda per lane of 6 bowlers. Lanes of 6 bowlers can be purchased in advance for $150 and guarantees lane assignment along with 6 raffle tickets. All other lane assignments are first come first serve and this event is PRE PAID only. This event has sold out every year so get your tickets early. Advance tickets can be purchased by visiting the website www.sfvips.com or at www.blacktie-southflorida.com/online_sales/rsvp_ticket_purchase.cfm?rsvpid=1695.

"We are excited to be the selected charity for the SFVIP's annual bowling event. Proceeds from the event will support the Back to School Bash, an event that prepares 3,200 local disadvantaged K-12 students for school by providing backpacks, grade-appropriate supplies, haircuts, healthy snacks, uniforms and other student resources. The bowling party will be a fabulous fun and a tremendous help to many students and their families" states Spirit of Giving Network Executive, Director Karen Krumholtz.

South Florida VIPS was founded by Nicole Flier and Lori Ludwig. SFVIPS goal is to provide innovative events in which young professionals (ages 20s-40s) network and socialize in a fun and energetic environment while giving back to the community. Membership is free. Members pay only for the events they attend. Please honor SFVIPs age range of 20s to 40s.
