DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH

The Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce held their fourth annual DIAMOND Award lunch at the Marriott Boca Raton. The lunch honored recipient Cheryl Budd, chief communications officer at NCCI. Three attendees were chosen to forward a cash prize of $500 or $1,000, donated by NCCI Holdings, to the charity of their choice.

MAGICAL MASQUERADE

South Florida VIPs, a local organization that brings together young professionals while giving back to the community, celebrated Mardi Gras at a soiree benefiting MicroGiving, the nonprofit Web site that allows people to donate to their favorite charities online. The event was held at Potions in Motion and featured an open bar, billiards and private lounge area. More than 100 guests attended, decked out in masks and festive attire.
