

The South Florida VIPs (Very Innovative Professionals) host an event on Friday March 23 to benefit the programs of KJds In New Directions.

South Florida VIPs announce upcoming event

Boca Raton's networking group, the South Florida VIPs (Very Innovative Professionals), announce their upcoming event to benefit the programs of Kids In New Directions (KIND).

Partnering with TransMedia Group and host location McCormick & Schmicks, the VIP soiree will take place on Friday March 23 from 6 to 9 p.m. The ticket price is $25, payable at the door, and includes two drinks, appetizers and a raffle ticket. A live jazz band will perform on the patio exclusively for members and guests.

The South Florida VIPs was formed in 2006. Co-founders Nicole Flier and Lori Ludwig plan events throughout the Boca Raton area and South Palm Beach County, with a portion of the proceeds from each event going to benefit KIND. VIP membership is free, and

Please see next page

Right: Lori Ludwig, left, Nicole Flier, Lynn Martin and Natalie Cwick

